

FORGE DAILY BATTLE PLANNER

Build Discipline. Reject Passivity. Walk With Christ.

A practical daily planner for Christian men who refuse to drift.

FinishTheRace.com

How To Use This Planner

The Forge Daily Battle Planner is designed to help Christian men build daily consistency after the 7-Day Forge Reset. This is not meant to be complicated. It is meant to be used.

Use it in three short windows: morning, midday, and evening. Five minutes in the morning and five minutes at night can bring structure to an entire day.

The goal is not perfection. The goal is movement. When you miss a day, do not quit. Start again the next morning.

"Discipline yourself for the purpose of godliness." - 1 Timothy 4:7

☐ Morning Watch	☐ Midday Battle Check
☐ Evening Debrief	☐ Weekly Battle Review

How to get the most out of it:

1. Print several copies of the daily pages. 2. Keep one near your Bible or desk. 3. Review it before bed. 4. Share progress with a trusted brother.

The Daily Battle Rhythm

A man who drifts rarely does so all at once. He drifts through unguarded hours, neglected convictions, and repeated small compromises. This daily rhythm helps you guard the day before the day controls you.

Morning Watch: Set your direction before distractions begin.

Midday Battle Check: Pause, assess, repent if needed, and reset your focus.

Evening Debrief: Review the day honestly and prepare to begin again tomorrow.

"Let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus..." - Hebrews 12:1-2

Today's simple rule: Do not let the day happen to you. Lead it before God.

Morning Watch Guide

The morning is where many battles are won before they are visible. Before checking news, messages, work, or entertainment, pause and put your attention before God.

Scripture Reading: Choose a passage before the day begins. Do not overcomplicate it. One chapter read with attention is better than ten chapters rushed.

Prayer Focus: Name the people, decisions, burdens, and temptations that need to be placed before the Lord.

Top 3 Priorities: Identify the three responsibilities that matter most today. A disciplined man does not confuse busyness with faithfulness.

Verse of the Day: Write one verse that you will carry with you throughout the day.

Midday Battle Check Guide

The middle of the day often reveals whether your morning commitment is becoming action. This check-in is not for shame. It is for awareness and correction.

Ask: Am I walking intentionally, or have I slipped into reaction mode? What temptation is active? What attitude needs correction? What responsibility needs attention?

☐ Focused	☐ Distracted
☐ Discouraged	☐ Angry
☐ Tempted	☐ Strong

Reset prayer: Father, help me finish this day faithfully. Correct my focus. Strengthen my self-control. Teach me to honor Christ in the next decision.

Daily Battle Plan - Midday Check

"Make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires." - Romans 13:14

How am I doing spiritually right now?

☐ Focused	☐ Distracted
☐ Discouraged	☐ Strong
☐ Tempted	☐ Passive

What temptation or distraction is most active today?

What responsibility needs my attention before the day ends?

One faithful step I will take now:

Evening Debrief Guide

A wise man reviews his day. Not to condemn himself, but to learn. Evening reflection trains you to notice patterns, celebrate grace, confess sin, and prepare for tomorrow.

Victory: Where did God help you obey today?

Challenge: Where did you struggle?

Lesson: What did you learn about God, yourself, or your habits?

Gratitude: Thankfulness weakens bitterness and strengthens contentment.

"Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts!" - Psalm 139:23

Temptation & Distraction Map

Many patterns become easier to fight once they are named. Use this page to identify what pulls your attention, weakens discipline, and creates drift.

My most common distractions:

☐ Phone	☐ Social media
☐ Streaming	☐ News
☐ Sports	☐ Food
☐ Anger	☐ Laziness
☐ Lust	☐ Fear

When am I most vulnerable?

What boundary will I put in place?

Accountability Partner Page

Biblical brotherhood requires initiative. Choose one trustworthy Christian man who can encourage you, challenge you, and pray with you.

Leadership Priorities

A Christian man should not only ask, 'What do I want?' He should ask, 'What has God entrusted to me?' Use this page to identify the people and responsibilities you are called to steward.

My family responsibilities:

My work responsibilities:

My church/community responsibilities:

One leadership action I will take this week:

When You Drift Again

You will have hard days. You may miss a habit. You may fall back into an old pattern. Do not turn one bad day into a bad month. Repent quickly. Return immediately. Keep moving forward.

My warning signs of drift:

My recovery plan:

The brother I will contact when I am struggling:

"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins..." - 1 John 1:9

The Forge Covenant

I reject passivity.

I accept responsibility.

I lead myself with discipline.

I pursue Christ intentionally.

I will not drift.

By God's grace, I will continue moving forward.
